

Please join

County Supervisor

Pam Slater

- Ask questions about Bio-Terrorism
- Learn about the County's disaster response plan
- Obtain Red Cross emergency preparedness tips
- Create a personal family preparedness plan
- Take home a personalized Child Identification Kit
- Hear from the County's Public Health Officer, Scripps Hospital, the Red Cross and the County Emergency Operations Center

Free stuff!!

- Pizza provided
- Door Prizes, including a security package valued at $350 and 25 disaster kits
- Coloring zone for kids
- Resource information
- Ample parking

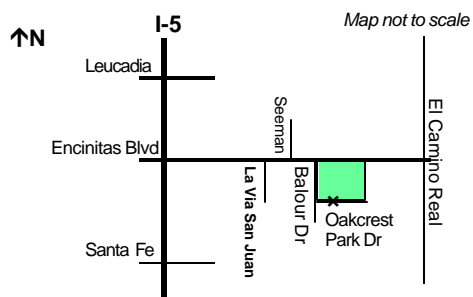

For a free workshop: Disaster Preparedness for Families in the 21st Century

Who: The Entire Family

Where: Encinitas Community Center
Banquet Hall
1140 Oakcrest Park Drive
Encinitas, CA 92024

When: Tuesday, September 16, 2003
4:00-5:30 pm Free Child
Identification Service
5:00-5:30 pm Registration
5:30-7:30 pm Program

RSVP: By Friday, September 12
(760) 967-4572

From I-5

- Exit Encinitas Blvd, heading East
- Right on Balour Dr
- Left on Oakcrest Park Dr
- The Encinitas Community Center will be on your Left at 1140 Oakcrest Park Dr

Scripps

American Red Cross
Together, we can save a life

